

The International Centre Expands Complimentary WiFi Solutions

Mississauga, Ontario, August 16, 2016 – The International Centre is pleased to announce a significant expansion to its wireless Internet program with the addition of the Conference Centre and Aviation Ballroom as areas where WiFi is provided complimentary. The new offerings now cover nearly 39,000 square feet of additional flexible meeting space where attendees can connect freely and perform routine online tasks.

The International Centre’s leading technology program already boasts existing complimentary WiFi in all of its lobby areas and Craft Eatery, the venue’s permanent restaurant. The addition of the Conference Centre and Aviation Ballroom provides more value to our event managers who can offer their attendees basic Internet access without further cost to their event. See below floorplan diagram illustrating complimentary WiFi areas.

Events that require higher performance services can complement this basic service by utilizing our team of leading IT professionals through the facility’s Technology Services and Telecommunications department; offering the industry’s fastest and most competitive solutions which can be customized for all event needs.

“We have been active in the technology space around events, particularly in industry discussions and creative thinking sessions with our customers” says Raiman Dilag, Director of Technology Services at The International Centre. “We want to continue providing the necessary tools for our customers as technology moves to the forefront of their ever growing online needs.”

The expanded wireless solutions further demonstrates The International Centre’s ongoing commitment to providing clients and their attendees with the highest level of services and expertise possible to create exceptional experiences.
